

Privacy Notice

Summary of how we and Basketball England use your data:

- Hotshots Basketball Club uses your personal data to manage and administer your membership and your involvement with its teams and club, and to keep in contact with you for these purposes.
- Where Hotshots Basketball Club rely on your consent, such as any consent we seek for email marketing, you can withdraw this consent at any time.
- Amongst the data we collect from you may be medical (including injury) information. We will hold this where you (or your parent) have given consent, so that we can ensure we are aware of your condition and can that you are supported appropriately.

What does this policy cover?

This policy describes how Hotshots Basketball Club (also referred to as “we” or “us”) will make use of the data we handle in relation to our members and players, including our use of Hotshots Basketball Club database system.

It also describes your data protection rights, including a right to object to some of the processing which we carry out.

What information do we collect?

We collect and process personal data from you or your parent when you join and when we carry out annual renewals of your membership. This includes:

- your name
- your gender,
- school year group,
- your home address, email address and phone number;
- your type of membership and involvement in particular teams, or any key role you may have been allocated, such as Chair, Safeguarding Lead, Membership Secretary etc.
- your payment and/or bank account details, where you provide these to pay for membership;
- your medical conditions or disability, where you provide this to us with your consent (or your parent’s consent) to ensure we are aware of any support we may need to provide to you.

Some information will be generated as part of your involvement with us, in particular data about your performance, involvement in particular matches in match reports and details of any disciplinary issues or incidents you may be involved in on and off the pitch, such as within health and safety records.

What information do we receive from third parties?

Sometimes, we receive information about you from third parties. For example, if you are a child, we may be given information about you by your parents.

We may receive information relating to your existing registrations with other clubs or disciplinary history. Additionally, for certain role holders or those working with children, we may receive information from the Disclosure and Barring Service on the status of any DBS check you have been required to take.

How do we use this information, and what is the legal basis for this use?

We process this personal data for the following purposes:

We may use this information inhouse for Hotshots Basketball Club to run the club.

As required by us to conduct our business and pursue our legitimate interests, in particular:

- we will use your information to manage and administer your membership and your involvement with its teams and club, and to keep in contact with you for these purposes;
- we will also use data to maintain records of our performances and history, including match reports, score lines and team sheets;
- we may choose to send you promotional materials and offers by post or by phone, or by email where we want to send you offers relating to similar products and services that you have already bought.

Where you give us consent:

- we may handle medical or disability information you or your parent provides to us, to ensure we support you appropriately;
- on other occasions where we ask you for consent, we will use the data for the purpose which we explain at that time.

For purposes which are required by law:

- we maintain records such as health and safety records and accounting records in order to meet specific legal requirements;
- we ensure, where you will work with children, that you have undergone an appropriate DBS check – this is also carried out with your consent.
- where you hold a role at the Club requiring us to check your right to work, we may process information to meet our statutory duties;
- we may respond to requests by government or law enforcement authorities conducting an investigation.

How does Hotshots Basketball Club use any of my information?

Hotshots Basketball Club provides an online database, but make its own use of the following information:

- your name;
- your gender;
- your school year group;
- your home address, email address and phone number; and
- your type of membership and involvement in particular teams at the Club, or any key role you may have been allocated, such as Chair, Safeguarding Lead, Membership Secretary etc.

Hotshots Basketball Club uses this information as follows:

As required by Hotshots Basketball Club to conduct its business and pursue its legitimate interests, in particular:

- communicating with you or about you where necessary to administer basketball in England.
- administering and ensuring the eligibility of players, match officials and others involved in English basketball – this may involve the receipt of limited amounts of sensitive data in relation to disabled players, where they are registered for a disabled league or team, or in relation to anti-doping matters;
- maintaining records of the game as played in England, in particular maintaining details of discipline, misconduct and safeguarding cases;
- maintaining statistics and conducting analysis on the make-up of basketball's participants;
- ensuring compliance with the current Basketball England Rules and Regulations including those on the affiliation of clubs, local leagues, associations and other basketball bodies, and registration of players; and;
- communicating with you to ask for your opinion on Hotshots Basketball Club initiatives.

For purposes which are required by law:

- Hotshots Basketball Club will ensure, where you will work with children and where this is required, that you have undergone an appropriate DBS check – this is also carried out with your consent.
- Hotshots Basketball Club may respond to requests by government or law enforcement authorities conducting an investigation.

Withdrawing consent or otherwise objecting to direct marketing

Wherever we rely on your consent, you will always be able to withdraw that consent, although we may have other legal grounds for processing your data for other purposes, such as those set out above. You have an absolute right to opt-out at any time. You can do this by contacting us using the details set out in the "Contacts" section on our website.

Who will we share this data with, where and when?

Personal data may be shared with government authorities and/or law enforcement officials if required for the purposes above, if mandated by law or if required for the legal protection of our legitimate interests in compliance with applicable laws.

What rights do I have?

You have the right to ask us for a copy of your personal data; to correct, delete or restrict (stop any active) processing of your personal data; and to obtain the personal data you provide to us for a contract or with your consent in a structured, machine readable format.

In addition, you can object to the processing of your personal data in some circumstances (in particular, where we don't have to process the data to meet a contractual or other legal requirement).

These rights may be limited, for example if fulfilling your request would reveal personal data about another person, or if you ask us to delete information which we are required by law to keep or have compelling legitimate interests in keeping.

You have the same rights for data held by Hotshots Basketball Club for its own purposes.

To exercise any of these rights, you can get in touch with us. If you have unresolved concerns, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

Much of the information listed above must be provided on a mandatory basis so that we can make the appropriate legal checks and register you as required by Hotshots Basketball Club Rules and Regulations. We will inform you which information is mandatory when it is collected. Some information is optional, particularly information such as your medical information. If this is not provided, we may not be able to provide you with appropriate assistance, services or support.

How do I get in touch with Hotshots Basketball Club?

We hope that we can satisfy queries you may have about the way we process your data. If you have any concerns about how we process your data, you can get in touch at info@hotshotsbasketball.co.uk.

How long will you retain my data?

We process the majority of your data for as long as you are an active member.

Where we process personal data in connection with performing a contract or for a competition, we keep the data for 2 years from your last interaction with us.

We will retain information held to maintain statutory records in line with appropriate statutory requirements or guidance.

Hotshots Basketball Club will maintain records of individuals who have registered on their database, records of DBS checks and the resulting outcomes and other disciplinary matters.

Records of your involvement in a particular match, on team sheets, on results pages or in match reports may be held indefinitely by us in order to maintain a record of the game.
